At Mr. McMilion's request for introduction: I am David Stark, an attorney for the South Carolina Public Service Commission. My purpose in this communication – and the previous one - is simply to inform all parties of the email communications from Mr. McMilion, linked above.

Regards,

David Stark

I am sending this email to make sure that all parties, including non-participating parties, are aware of the email communications received by the Commission recently.

I am including links to the DMS, where the emails have been posted.
